The image displays a double-page spread from an antique manuscript. Folio 10v (left) and folio 11r (right) are visible. The text is written in a dark ink using a cursive script, organized into two columns per page. The parchment is aged, showing a yellowish-brown hue and some surface wear. The central gutter shows the binding of the book. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or a list of entries, with some lines starting with large, decorated initials. The overall condition of the manuscript is well-preserved, though the edges of the parchment are slightly worn.
